TRAIL HOURS
5 a.m. - 10 p.m.

TRAIL ACCESS POINTS

BOOTY’S ROAD PARK
1831 Booty’s Rd.
From the parking lot, you can access the Randy Morrow Trail to the east and the Lake Georgetown Trail to the west.

CHANDLER PARK
108 Spring Valley Dr.
Access the Randy Morrow Trail while enjoying some fishing and a picnic.

RIVERY PARK
1125 Woodlawn Ave.
While enjoying the playground, picnic area, disc golf, and fishing, you can also access the Randy Morrow Trail. Head east to connect to San Gabriel Park or west to Chandler Park, Booty’s Road Park, and Lake Georgetown trails.

CHAUTAUQUA PARK
502 Rucker St.
From this park, you can access the rustic Pickett Trail, which winds along the South San Gabriel River to Blue Hole Park. The challenging grades, rocky terrain, and scenic views will keep you coming back.

BLUE HOLE PARK
300 Blue Hole Rd.
The South San Gabriel Trail runs along the South San Gabriel River through Blue Hole Park. You can also access Pickett Trail from here.

SAN GABRIEL PARK
310 E. Morrow St.
At the pedestrian bridge, the San Gabriel Park Loop connects to the Randy Morrow Trail and the South San Gabriel Trail.

MCMASTER ATHLETIC COMPLEX
101 W.L. Walden Dr.
Access the South San Gabriel Trail, Randy Morrow Trail, and the Bark Park. Parking is plentiful.

SAN GABRIEL PARK
609 E. Morrow St.
From this point within San Gabriel Park, you can access the San Gabriel River Trail, which follows the river out to the Katy Crossing neighborhood.

City of Georgetown Trails Map

The Georgetown Trails Foundation has constructed natural surface, multiuse trails great for mountain biking, and open to all. View their interactive trails map.

The Georgetown Trails Foundation has constructed natural surface, multiuse trails great for mountain biking, and open to all. View their interactive trails map.

On the go? Scan for a digital trails map.